- Bantey Srey Temple: Banteay Srei is built primarily in red sandstone, a medium that lends itself to the elaborate decorative wall carvings which are still observable in fine details today.

-South Gate of Angkor: Angkor Thom is undeniably an expression of the highest genius. It is, in three dimensions and on a scale worthy of an entire nation, the materialization of Buddhist cosmology, representing ideas that only great painters would dare to portray.

-Bayon Temple Complex: The Bayon temple forms a square at the center of the much larger square of the vast Angkor Thom, and is the architectural highlight of the complex. This was considered by the Khmers to be the conjunction of heaven and earth, though the auspicious site was covered in jungle for centuries.

-Terrace of Elephant: Most of the original structure was made of organic material and has long since disappeared. Most of what remains are the foundation platforms of the complex. The terrace is named for the carvings of elephants on its eastern face

-Lipper King:

In the afternoon visit Angkor Wat: Was first a Hindu, then subsequently a Buddhist, temple complex in Cambodia and the largest religious monument in the world. Angkor Wat also means "Temple City" or "City of Temples". After that can enjoy watching the sunset on Phnom Bakheng mountain.
