Due to the present economic downturn, we are organizing this dana trip to make merit and to pray for economic recovery. This tour will start from 14 March and from then on will take place every weekend.

Highlights:

- Visit the Wat Phra Mahathat
- Offering 'Ka Sei', monks' dress
- Visit to the first Chatukham Temple
- Visit to City Pillar
- Offering food to 108 monks
- Visit to the temple where Lung Por Tuat was born and view the holy snake ball

Itinerary

Day 1

5:00 am Pick up from Beautiful Planet office or bus terminal or your house if it is on the way, as we start of our Dana trip to Nakorn Si Thammarat.

After crossing the border we will proceed to Wat Pakoh, where Lung Por Tuat was born. You may pray and view the holy snake ball that was offered by a snake when Mung Por Tuat was born.

Thereafter we proceed to Nakorn Sithammarat. First we will visit Wat Phra Mahathat, the only holy pagoda with no shadow.

We will offer the holy yellow monks' dress to the pagoda. After that, we will have lunch followed by visit to the first Chatukham Temple and Lak Muang City Pillar.

In the late afternoon, we will make our way back to Hatyai. After dinner we will check into hotel, and then it is free and easy.
